

Camps and Youth Programs

INFORMATION SESSION

The University of Maryland is committed to the safety of all individuals in its community. Procedures and guidelines have been established for those in the University community, including faculty, staff, appointees, students, student employees, graduate associates, and volunteers, who may work or interact with non-student individuals under 18 years of age, with the goal of promoting the safety and wellbeing of minors.

To learn more about upcoming changes in the operation of youth programs, please join our upcoming information session.
