

Conditions for removal of biohazard symbol from laboratory warning signs

- All cultures, samples and biological waste have been removed from the laboratory.
- All cultures have been removed from storage in freezers and refrigerators.
- Laboratory benches, floors and equipment have been surface disinfected by lab personnel using effective disinfectant.
- PI does not plan to use the laboratory for BSL2 level research within the foreseeable future.
- PI has requested inactivation of his/her research registrations involving BSL2 agents.